

I am a staunch advocate of the NJ Do Not Call Law, since it has been enacted I have stopped receiving call that interrupt my dinner, asking for money for obscure or non-existant causes, I haven't won any prizes that ask for credit card information and most importantly I don't need to be concerned that someone calling me won't hang up until I hang up on them. Please tend to more pressing issues and leave New Jersey's law alone.